Christine Montanti, Photography by Don Fitzgibbon

HAMPTONS LUXURY FASHION BOUTIQUES

This issue features the beautiful and vibrant film and television star, Kyle Richards. With a career in Hollywood which spans over four decades, the American actress has unparalleled staying power and timeless beauty. Her signature look and elegant style, showcased on the pages of June's cover feature, can be emulated by shopping at many of the luxurious fashion boutiques in the historic villages of the East End.

The chic Hamptons' wardrobe consists of trendy and colorful daytime wear and sophisticated evening attire. Aside from the cutting-edge fashion boutiques and luxury brand flagship stores, there are many couture fashion destinations that pop-up during the summer which are the go-to shops for exclusive styles.

The charming town of Southampton is a quintessential place to shop luxury brands. From Intermix, the destination for exclusive emerging designers to Tenet, the beach store with eclectic statement pieces, sophisticated fashions can be found at many of the boutiques that are nestled on Main Street and Jobs Lane. A wide variety of chic apparel can be also be found on the manicured streets of the affluent village of East Hampton. From flagship stores and national brands such as at Ralph Lauren and Elie Tahari to intimate boutiques such as Milly and Blue & Cream, elegant styles can be selected that won't disappoint. Don't forget to shop the quieter charming towns of Sag Harbor and Montauk where modish boutiques like the LoveShackFancy and Cynthia Rowley line the streets of these adored picturesque villages.

With so many couture fashion boutiques to choose from on the East End, the elegant styles will undoubtedly enable you to acquire the beautiful and glamorous looks of June's iconic cover model Kyle Richards.

Kyle Richards, Photography by Mike Ruiz

Christine Montanti

Christine Montanti