

Editor's Letter

It feels like just yesterday we were welcoming summer, soon summer will be winding down, so now is the perfect time to soak up every last bit of the season. There are still long days to enjoy, warm evenings to relish, and plenty of opportunities to make a few more summer memories. Whether it's a spontaneous day trip, dinner outdoors, a morning at the beach, or simply slowing down and enjoying the sunshine, let's make the most of these final weeks of summer before the crisp days of fall arrive.

Featured in this issue is British singer and actress Sydnie Christmas. Since capturing the attention of audiences with her inspirational performances and an incredible victory on Britain's Got Talent in 2024, Sydnie Christmas has embarked on a rapid journey that has taken her from television talent-show stages to London's West End, sold-out concert halls, and to some of America's most prestigious venues. Currently, the remarkable artist is preparing to return to the United States with brand new music.

Also featured in this issue is Tara Zimmerman. As a Daniel Gale Sotheby's International Realty Associate Broker, she has built a trusted reputation in Long Island's luxury market by offering something increasingly rare: authenticity. Her expertise is grounded in an understanding of the local market, her reputation is built on trust earned over time, and her approach is shaped by genuine client relationships. Tara feels that luxury is reflected in how a home is presented, how every client is guided with confidence and care, and in the relationships that continue long after the closing documents are signed. These are the qualities that matter most to her.

As we turn the page to fall, we're excited to bring you along for the season ahead, with plenty of inspiration, ideas, and stories to enjoy. I look forward to connecting with you again inside the pages of the next issue of Park Magazine.

Best Wishes,

Christine Montanti

Christine Montanti Senior Editor